

Contents

Foreword	v
Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
List of contributors	x
1. Historical aspects of laparoscopic hernia repair	1
2. Hernia repair by minimal access surgery	9
3. Endoscopic anatomy	17
4. SGRH classification for endoscopic repair of hernias	34
5. Equipment and instruments	40
6. Prosthetics and fixation devices	46
7. Patient management—SGRH approach	62
8. Anaesthesia for endohernia repair	66
9. Total extraperitoneal repair of groin hernias	76
10. Transabdominal preperitoneal repair of groin hernias	94
11. Trouble-shooting in groin hernia repair	101
12. Conversion and complications in total extraperitoneal repair	108
13. Laparoscopic repair of ventral and incisional abdominal wall hernias	115
14. Trouble-shooting in ventral and incisional abdominal wall hernias	129
Appendices	143
Index	147